VICTORIA CROSS.

00 30th June to 22nd November, 1857, Lieut. Robert H. M. Aitken, late 13th Bengal, N. I. very fine and very rare 1

 Colonel R. H. M. Aitken, served throughout the Punjaub Campaign of 1848-49, including the passage of the Chenab, battle of Goojerat, and pursuit of the Sikhs and Afghans (Medal with Clasp), Southal Campaign in 1855, present at the Mutiny at Lucknow, 30th May, 1857, defeat of the mutineers the following day, action of Chinhut, throughout defence of the Residency from 30th June to 22nd November, 1857, including four sorties, in two of which he commanded; afterwards present during the operation before Cawnpore, from 28th November and battle of the 6th December; Oudh Campaign of 1858, repeatedly mentioned in despatches, thanked by Government, Medal with Clasp, a year's service, Brevet of Major and Victoria Cross, received the V.C. for various acts of gallantry performed during the defence of the Residency of Lucknow, from the 30th June to the 22nd November, 1857.

1. On three different occasions Lieutenant Aitken went into the garden under the enemy's loopholes in the "Captains' Bazaar." On two of these occasions he brought out a number of bullocks which had been left in the garden; subsequently on the 3rd July the enemy having set fire to the Bhoosa stock in the garden and it being apprehended that the fire would reach the powder magazine, which had been left there, Lieutenant Aitken, accompanied by other officers, went into the garden and cut down all the tents which might have communicated the fire to the powder. This was done close to the enemy's loopholes, under a bright light from the flames; it was a most dangerous service.
2. On the night of the 20th August, the enemy having set fire to the Baillie Guard Gate, Lieut. Aitken was the first man in the gateway, and assisted by some Sepoys and a water-carrier of his regiment, he partially opened the gate under a heavy fire of musketry, and having removed the burning wood and straw, saved the gate.
3. On the evening of September 25th this officer led on twelve Sepoys of his regiment for the purpose of attacking two guns opposite the gate referred to, in order to prevent their being turned on the late Major General Havelock's second column. Having captured them, he attacked and took the Teree Kotee, with a small force.
4. On the morning of September 26th, with a small party of his regiment he assaulted and captured the barricaded gateway of the Furreed Buksh Palace, and the Palace itself. On this occasion he sprang up against a small wicket gate on the right, and prevented the enemy from shutting it, until, with assistance, it was forced open, and the assaulting party were thus enabled to rush in. The complete success of the attack was solely owing to this officer's distinguished bravery.

5. In a subsequent sortie on September 29th Lieutenant Aitken volunteered to take a gun which still continued firing, taking with him four soldiers through the houses and lanes to the guns. The enemy fired on this party from the houses, but they held their ground, until a stronger party coming up, the gun was upset from the carriage, and taken into the Residency. Another gun was subsequently taken.—Vide Hart's Army List.
